John Hamilton, Susan Rowe, Michael Dreitlein and Shirley Scales accept the "Challenge of the 70's."

At every turn of the road there is a new challenge. As graduates of Portsmouth Catholic High School, we have been educated in the Catholic tradition. May the training received here prepare us for the spiritual, intellectual, and social challenges of the future.

Bobby Gillikin says, "I'd run a mile for PC!"

The Challenge Of The 70's

Eighth graders engage in a friendly game of football on PC's new "campus".

What did one car say to another? "Portsmouth Catholic's got a good thing going."

In Appreciation . . .

Portsmouth Catholic High School owes a debt of gratitude to Rev. Thomas J. Caroluzza, Coordinator, and Pastor of Holy Angels, to Rev. Julius J. Cilinski, Pastor of St. Paul's, to Rev. William Connelly, Pastor of St. Therese's, and to Rev. Gerard Schoot, Pastor of St. Mary's, for launching the drive to support the school. This gratitude extends to the Catholic people of Tidewater who responded so wholeheartedly and with overwhelming success for the continued operation of Catholic education.

Happiness is work, play, and PC.

Coach Kenny Miller

Piloting the Saints this year is Coach Kenny Miller. As PCHS Athletic Director, he is head basketball and baseball coach. Portsmouth Catholic played a difficult schedule of 37 games including tournaments and games with 1A schools. Coach Miller worked hard to help the team master the qualities needed for a good ball club; and as a result, the team improved steadily all through the season.

PCHS Varsity team: Coach Miller, Mike Fiel, Joe Meagher, Earnest Miller, Ronny Rowe, Ken Sedlacko, Richard Revell, Steve Robbins, Bill Beaton, Donald Everett, Louis Martinette. Also, Michael Kyle, Chris Clark, and Butch Gonzales, managers and score keepers.

Team Spirit led to many victories.

PC's girls' basketball team bounced successfully through the season. The formula could well be the squad's game experience and determination to win. Credit is due to veteran players Stevie Kensil, Meredith Linehan, Susan Rowe, Candy Potts, Karen Didio, Mona Crowe, and Cindy Russo who are all seniors with years of experience.
